WE PAY TRIBUTE TO....

We of the Clintonia Staff are proud to dedicate the 1962 Clintonia to Miss Opal Marshall. Miss Marshall teaches Algebra I, II, III, and Trigonometry and has been Head of the Math Department, while also sponsoring the Future Nurses Club.

She graduated from Illinois College, Jacksonville, in May of 1921. She began her teaching career at Clinton High School in September of 1921 and has been a devoted faculty member for 41 years.

THE STUDENT

Allen Wrage and Ray Pelley are finding out the percentage of oxygen in water.

LEARNS

Art students in an air of creativity.

Home Economics students learn the arts of homemaking.

We attend C.C.H.S. to further our education and, in turn, to prepare ourselves for our part in becoming a citizen of the United States. Our academic courses play the most important role in our high school life.

The map is an aid for study for World History students.

THE STUDENT

Competition is an important part of our lives. Our organized sports: football, cross country, basketball, track, and golf compete in the Corn Belt Conference. This year the girls held an intra-mural volleyball tournament. In addition to these, we have contests for fun, such as cheering contests between student groups.

COMPETES

Clinton fans "cheer for our dear old high school."

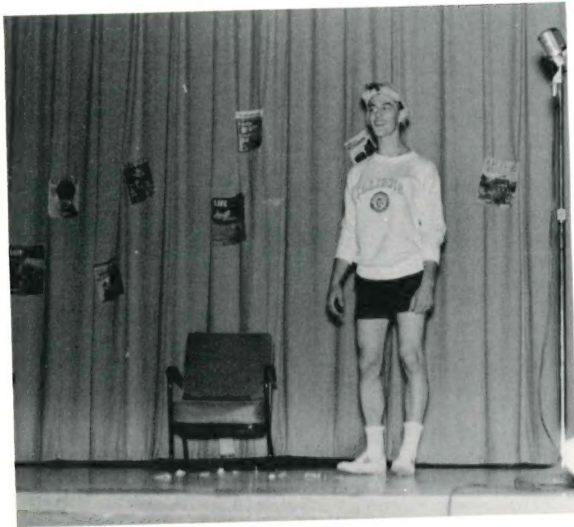

Girls compete in intramural volleyball.

The pep session is the site of many contests.

THE STUDENT

Victoria Buraglio models the latest in ladies' sport wear at Senior Magazine Assembly.

During the Homecoming assembly we enjoyed a visit from Lucius and Zeke from "Possum Gap."

During the year, certain clubs sponsor activities to lighten and brighten our high school life. Among these are the Senior Magazine Assembly, the Pep Club's Sadie Hawkin's Dance, and the F.H.A. Round-Up. Also, every Homecoming Lucius and Zeke make their trip from "Possum Gap" to add excitement and fun to our festivities.

LAUGHS

High society of Dogpatch, U.S.A.

Let's go fishin' at the F.H.A. Fall Roundup.

THE STUDENT

The bowling alley is a familiar site for after-hour activities.

Part-time jobs are common among some of the students at C. C. H. S.

More miles are traveled by going around the "square" than any place else.

When the long-awaited weekend is here and the homework is done, the student is free. His time is spent driving around the square, at the R. & R., bowling, skating, at dances, or at jobs. The hours from 4 to 12 are the magic hours in the exciting social life of a C. C. H. S. student.

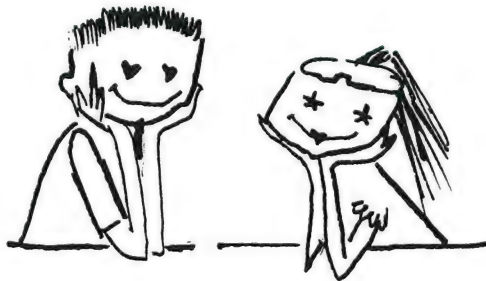

AFTER HOURS!

Which one did they choose?

A friendly get together for all high school students.

Seen in the halls of C.C.H.S., there exists a "crazy-mixed-up kid" between the ages of thirteen-eighteen--a teenager. He likes clothes, food, cars, dances, fun, holidays, and stereo. He dislikes homework, curfews, report-cards, and dateless weekends. You might say he leads a life of organized confusion!

The horoscope of each teen has a few similarities. Their lucky day is Friday (school is out!) and their unlucky day is Monday (school begins). Under the signs of Cancer, Leo, and Virgo they have the happy carefree days. The remaining part of the year is filled with hurrying and scurrying of school months.

Their interests, education, and high ideals place in their hands the future of our nation.

QUEEN SANDI REIGNS

Sandi Seaton reigns as our 1961 Homecoming Queen. The 5'3" Senior was crowned during the halftime of the Homecoming game. Her birthday was November 8, 1944. She has brown hair and eyes. Bookkeeping takes top billing as her favorite subject, and her pastimes are swimming and listening to the radio. She has been a cheerleader all her four years at C.C.H.S. and is a member of Y.C.C.I. and Pep Club, of which she has been Treasurer. She is copywriter on the Clintonia staff. She has served as Student Council Representative in her Junior year, and she was Class Secretary her Freshman year. After graduation, Sandi will attend the School of Beauty Culture at S.I.U.

THE JUNIOR PLAY

On November 17, 1961, the Junior Class turned the clock back to 1923, and presented "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay," a comedy in three acts. Cornelia Skinner, played by Susan Gregor, and Emily Kimbrough, Carol Romsa, are two nineteen-year-olds sharing accommodations on a trip to Paris. Mr. and Mrs. Skinner, Bob Taylor and Marcia Cruthis, also made the trip but refrain themselves from much chaperoning. Romance and laughs are provided by two Harvard pre-med students, Dick Winters and Leo McEvoy, played by Bill West and Buzz Land, respectively. Throughout the play, Cornelia and Emily are constantly in and out of mischief, and everyone's heart was young and gay at this presentation.

What's with the fan, Cornelia?

Smack!

Okay, Emily, switch!!

OUR HEARTS WERE YOUNG AND GAY

Cornelia, we've got to get you past the medical inspector.

Preparations!

I can't sound too breathy on the phone.

Paris, here we come! Measles and all!

Athletic contests are an important part of our interscholastic activities. In these activities, we compete in the Corn Belt Conference, composed of six different high schools, ourselves included. This year the football team took second place in this conference. Clinton hopes to keep up its good name as a determined participant in all its interscholastic meets.
